

September 23, 2010

school notes

Parent cafeteria crew goes organic

Hot lunch at The Howard School has always been tasty, but this year the meals are extra special. Thanks to parent Beth Bailey, students can now enjoy their favorite lunches with all organic and, when available, locally sourced ingredients. Parents are at the helm of The Howard School lunch crew; they do all the shopping, the prep, the cooking and the serving of 70-plus students and staff at the school three days a week. Monday and Friday lunches are ordered online from Silvergreens and delivered to the school. To keep things interesting, the school features a local guest chef each month and parents are encouraged to come and eat lunch with their children. October's guest chef is Michael Blackwell, the executive chef at the Montecito Country Club.

Beth Bailey and Howard students, from left, Peter Robbins, Taylor Kane, Mary Jane Bailey, Vivian Bailey and Jack Kane, show off the kitchen that parents use to prep and cook lunch for students.