Kiddo Squeezeie

Hey, Kiddo!

Wednesday, July 14, 2010

Since we're not exactly peeling and pureeing sweet potatoes, or blending wild blueberries and organic apples as we run out the door to work/school/soccer practice ... we're really glad SB local, Beth Bailey, came along with her brilliant line of healthy snacks-on-the-go.

Kiddo squeezeies are little pouches of sweet potatoes, blueberries & apples packed with vitamins and nutrients. Currently sold at Santa Barbara's Whole Foods and Lazy Acres, they're a tasty treat for kids ... and delicious for adults, too.

Going out? Bring the Kiddos.
